

FORTHEM Collective Short-Term Mobility Forthem Student Involvement week

Organising university: Université de Bourgogne

Location of the event: Maison des sciences de l'homme, Esplanade Erasme

Organisers: We are part of ESN (Erasmus student network) and we aim to welcome and integrate all the international students coming to Dijon, as well as the other youth in mobility. Our second objective is to promote and help local students get an international mobility experience.

Project description: We want to offer a complete mobility experience with the educational, fun and social aspects that Erasmus students can experience. This week could be a trigger to encourage students to be more active in their universities and create links between students and associations for the creation of new trans-national projects within the alliance. We want to push them to take more initiative and show the impact that these projects and student associations can have on the local community and how to put all this involvement to good use.
